ment of the institute, 26,500 for working expenses, and the remainder for salaries for assistants during 1922. Work began January 1, 1922. The institute has its own council, appointed by the king and standing directly under the government. At present it is located at Upsala and the director is nominally on the university staff; but the institute is governmental rather than university department or agency. The first council comprises: H. Hammarskjöld, lord lieutenant of Upland; A. af Jocknick, Esq., director general in the Royal Committee for Pensions, Stockholm; F. Lennmahn, M.D., rector of the "Karolinska Instutet," Stockholm; Mrs. Emilia Broomé, Stockholm; J. V. Hultkranz, M.D., professor of anatomy, Upsala University; H. Nilsson-Ehle, M.D. and Ph.D., professor of heredity in Lund University (at Åkarp); H. Lundborg, M.D., director of the institute. The present staff includes: Dr. F. J. Linders, statistician, archivist and vice director; G. Dahlberg, M.D., medical assistant, at present doing anthropometric work; Dr. W. W. Krauss (formerly of Vienna), assistant anthropologist; E. Heckscher, genealogist; Mrs. G. Dahlberg, who helps her husband in anthropometric work, recorded as social worker; and Mr. E. A. Ohlsén, photographer.

UNIVERSITY AND EDUCATIONAL NOTES

Ground has been broken for the new laboratory of the department of hygiene and bacteriology at the University of Chicago to stand between the psychological laboratory on the north and the university press on the south. The building, of brick, will front 110 feet on Ellis Avenue and will contain a general laboratory, a laboratory devoted to the bacteriology and chemistry of water and foods, five research rooms, a room equipped with sterilizing devices, and an animal room.

By the will of the late General Frank Sherwin Streeter, Dartmouth College receives $50,000. A bequest of $10,000 is left to Dr. Ernest M. Hopkins, president of the college.

THE council of the senate of the University of Cambridge has issued a report on the allocation of the Special Government Grant, which has now become a recurrent grant of £30,000. This is divided as follows: Professorships, £14,675; readerships, £5,304; university lectureships, £3,750; university officers, £3,240; grant to Geographical Education Fund, £250; university library, £2,000; Museum of Classical Archeology, £750.

AT Indiana University, Associate Professor U. S. Hanna has been promoted to a full professorship, and Assistant Professor Cora B. Hennel to an associate professorship of mathematics.

The Bulletin of the American Mathematical Society states that, on the return of pre-war conditions, the U. S. Naval Academy has reduced the number of its civilian officers of instruction in academic departments by about one third. From the department of mathematics, Assistant Processors R. P. Johnson and G. F. Alrich have accepted assistant professorships at the Carnegie Institute of Technology, and Mr. L. S. Johnston an assistant professorship at Pennsylvania State College.

Dr. RAYMOND A. DART, formerly of Sydney University, Australia, and recently of the anatomical department, University of London, has accepted the professorship of anatomy in the University of Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, South Africa, where a new medical college building has recently been completed. Dr. Dart came to the United States two years ago on the invitation of the Rockefeller Foundation to examine American laboratories and methods of teaching, and to help encourage the development of a better understanding and closer relations between English and American scientists teaching in medical schools. As traveling fellow of the foundation, Dr. Dart spent some time in our laboratories, and at the Marine Biological Laboratory at Woods Hole, Mass., where he was married to Miss Dora Tyree, assistant in anatomy at the University of Cincinnati.

Dr. Holburt J. Waring has been elected dean of the faculty of medicine of the University of London.
